

BharCap Partners, a financial services focused private equity fund, is currently investing over $1.0 billion of available client capital and is seeking an Associate to join their team.

<https://www.bharcap.com/>

Given BharCap's robust deal activity, the ideal start date is ASAP but there is some flexibility

BharCap is targeting investments of between $50 million to $350 million and is focused on the following financial services sub-sectors: specialty finance; asset and wealth management; insurance distribution and services; financial technology and tech-enabled business services. BharCap is currently investing out of Fund I, a $500 million single LP fund and Fund II, a $500 million, asset-light, control buyout fund

The Associate position is career path and, BharCap is able to do Green Card Sponsorship

BharCap is located in Greenwich, CT with new offices opening in September 2025, directly across the street from the Metro North Greenwich Train Station.

The BharCap team is in the office 3-4 days/week and 1-2 days remote depending on travel schedules.

Associate Role Overview:

The role of Investment Team Associate will be to support and be an integral part of the firm's investment team. The candidate for the position should have two or more years of experience with a top investment bank, ideally in the Financial Institutions Group. The role requires strong analytical skills with a focus on LBOs, merger & acquisition, valuation, and corporate finance analyses. The candidate should be able to analyze company financials and operations and develop business plans and forecasts in conjunction with team members and portfolio company executives. The candidate must have great attention to detail and organizational skills, ability to work well under tight deadlines and capacity to juggle multiple tasks. The role requires the incumbent to be a self-starter and to exhibit confidence to work both independently and to collaborate with a variety of individuals at BharCap, third party advisory firms and existing and prospective portfolio companies. Additionally, the candidate must be highly proficient with Excel and Power Point. The role will require an average of 3-4 days per week in Greenwich with remote flexibility for the remaining time. The candidate will have an opportunity to work directly with the Principals of the Firm, who have significant investment and operational experience. The Firm provides employee engagement to further a candidate's career path and the potential to participate in the Firm's long-term incentive program.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates should submit their resume and cover letter to Meghna Desai at meghna@bharcap.com with the subject line "Investment Team Associate Application – [Your Name]."